

I wish to thank the FAA for its proposed rule and urge you to finalize the rule as soon as possible for the earliest possible benefit of animals. I do have some concern that the definition of "animal" in the proposed rule is fairly narrow and so ask you to broaden your proposed definition to include animals such as those from zoos, labs and animals from other countries. Thank you.